

WHISTLEBLOWER/COMPLAINT RESOLUTION POLICY

In keeping with the policy of maintaining the highest standards of conduct and ethics, Tucson Amateur Astronomy Association Inc. ("TAAA") will investigate complaints of suspected fraudulent or dishonest use or misuse of its resources or property by leaders, board members, consultants, members, volunteers, or clients. To maintain the highest standards of service, TAAA will also investigate complaints concerning its programs and services.

Leaders, board members, consultants, members, volunteers, clients, and community members are encouraged to report suspected fraudulent or dishonest conduct or problems with services provided, pursuant to the procedures set forth below. This policy supplements, and does not replace, any procedures required by law, regulation, or funding source requirements.

Reporting. A person's concerns about possible fraudulent or dishonest use or misuse of resources or property, or program operation, should be reported: to the TAAA Vice President or to the TAAA President. If, for any reason, a person finds it difficult to report his or her concerns to such person, s/he may report the concerns directly to another member of the TAAA Board of Directors. Alternately, to facilitate reporting of suspected violations where the reporter wishes to remain anonymous, a written statement may be submitted to one of the individuals listed above.

Investigation. All relevant matters, including suspected but unproved matters, will be promptly reviewed and analyzed, with documentation of the receipt, retention, investigation, and treatment of the complaint.

Appropriate corrective action will be taken, if necessary, and findings may be communicated to the reporting person and his or her supervisor/leader, if appropriate. Investigations may be conducted by independent persons such as the board, auditors and/or attorneys. Investigators will endeavor to maintain appropriate confidentiality, but confidentiality is not guaranteed.

No Retaliation. No director, officer, member, volunteer, client, or general public who in good faith reports suspected fraudulent or dishonest use or misuse of its resources or property or complaints concerning the services it provides and programs TAAA runs shall suffer harassment, retaliation, or adverse action or other consequence. A member who retaliates against someone who has reported a violation in good faith is subject to discipline up to and including termination of membership. This Whistleblower/Complaint Resolution Policy is intended to encourage and enable members and others to raise serious concerns within the organization prior to seeking resolution outside the organization. The Policy is in addition to any non-retaliation requirements contained in other TAAA Personnel Policies or required by law.

This protection from retaliation is not intended to prohibit leaders from taking action, including disciplinary action, in the usual scope of their duties and based on valid performance-related factors. Individuals making complaints must be cautious to avoid baseless allegations; members who intentionally make false allegations are subject to disciplinary action in accordance with the TAAA Policies.
