

Instructions For Renewal Or Joining The Astronomical League

Go to the TAAA website: <http://tucsonastronomy.org/>

The page looks like:

There are two pull downs tabs that can be used: TAAA RESOURCES or MEMBERSHIP, outlined in red in the figure below.

If you select ASTRONOMICAL LEAGUE under the TAA RESOURCES pull down tab, you will see the Astronomical League page:

This page contains a lot of information about the Astronomical League. Note the buttons near the top of the page. The two buttons in the upper right are for TAAA membership, NOT Astronomical League membership. To Join (or renew) the Astronomical League, select the big button that says 'JOIN THE ASTRONOMICAL LEAGUE'. When selected you will go to the Join Astronomical League page:

JOIN ASTRONOMICAL LEAGUE

Club members enjoy a discounted annual membership rate in the Astronomical League. You may join or renew at any time. The cost is $7.50/year.

How to Join or Renew Membership in the League

If you are joining TAAA for the first time, you will have an opportunity to join the League during the sign up process.

Thereafter, for renewals of Astronomical League, please log into your MemberPlanet area by using the MEMBERS ONLY button located at the top right of any screen on this website. You will be taken to the sign on screen at MemberPlanet, and after entering your user name and password you will arrive at the TAAA members only Landing page. You will find a link to the Astronomical League payment form on the the list in the right side column.

Welcome to Our Member-Only Pages!

In addition to the activities and programs that we provide to the general public, we have this special section for you, our members. In this area, you have a multitude of options for learning and participating, sharing and reaching out.

On the right are useful links for members.

The Inbox is where you can check out recent emails from the association that you might have missed.

Your Member Profile is where you can update your information and privacy settings. See the bottom of this page for more information. Also on that page is a confusing menu of items in the left column. Use the Directory to look up and securely communicate with fellow members. It also includes a "smart lookup".

Member Card gives you your current membership level and status. It also is where you find your member number. The card is printable.

Renew Membership takes you to your personal MemberPlanet Membership Level page. On the upper right is the "Renew" button that takes you to where you can

This allows you to join the Astronomical League (or renew) without going thru member planet.

If none of these methods are used or they don't work, you can join or renew the AL membership by MAIL. Simply send a check for $7.50, made payable to 'Tucson Amateur Astronomy Association.', to the mailing address for the TAAA PO Box 41254, Tucson, AZ 85717. Put a note on the check indicating 'AL Dues'. Make sure the check has your name, address and phone number on it."
